

University Terrace Berkeley

Architectural Review Board

Satellite dish guidelines

Section 3.14 of the CC&Rs specifies that satellite dishes (and similar items) may be installed only with the approval of the ARB. The criteria the ARB will apply when deciding whether to approve satellite dishes are these:

- They must be installed on the roof, by a qualified person, in such a way as not to damage the roof or underlying materials; and
- They must be grey in color.